Citing a Newspaper Article from an Online Database in NoodleTools

Citation Clues:
Look for these words in the title of the source:
Daily, Gazette, Times, Newswire, Record, Post, etc.

Click the info button for help in analyzing the source citation
Under Sources, Click + Create new citation
Select database.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Media Type</th>
<th>Citation</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Newspaper</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Select Newspaper.
Citation has 3 containers:

- Database
- Article
- Newspaper
Use the pull-down menu to select the database.
Copy/paste permalink from database.

Right-click tutorial below and open in a new tab for directions.
Most Recent Date of Access

1/3/2016

East Area School District to resume uniform discussion this week

Christina Tatu

Oct. 10 - East Area School District officials will resume discussions next week on whether to implement uniforms, a decision administrators and teachers say would cut down on distractions and put students on an "even scale" when it comes to their wardrobe choices.

The discussion figures to draw familiar refrain from students who say uniforms stifle individual style and hinder their ability to express themselves.

In fact, those refraims have begun. Sophomore Brianna Paul, 15, said her English class recently wrote letters to school board President Frank Pintabone weighing in on uniforms.

The class was pretty evenly divided Paul said, was among those not in favor.

"I think it takes away everyone's diversity to be themselves. I don't really want to go to school and look like everyone else," she said.

Most students during a recent afternoon dismissal at East Area High School were wearing jeans and sweatshirts, some emblazoned with logos from popular brands such as Aeropostale and Abercrombie and Fitch.

Several teachers spoke in favor of uniforms, saying it's not unusual for students to sometimes wear sagging pants or low-cut shirts, although the district's 2008 dress code bans such styles.

"Uniforms would put everyone on an even scale, although it takes away the freedom of how students want to dress," said Easton High School learning support teacher Shelly Bartolocci. "We are professionals as teachers, and I think they should be learning how to present themselves in a professional manner too."

Easton administrators recently conducted an informal email poll of the district's teachers that showed about 89 percent are in favor of uniform. Pintabone said, estimating about 650 of the district's 700 teachers responded.

The school board will discuss a uniform policy at a committee meeting at 6 p.m. Tuesday in the Education Center Board Room at 1801 Brelsford Drive, Pintabone said.

The last time the district considered uniforms was in 2009.

"The only reason it wasn't fully vetted a couple years ago was because the district was in such a distressed position financially that they said, 'We don't want to look at anything right now. We need to focus on our finances,'" Pintabone said. "I'm leaning toward being in favor of it, however, I would like to see what everyone says."

Published by Morning Call, The (Allentown, PA) 10/10/2015.
Use the Source Citation to complete the article information.
Note: If the article has no author, leave the field blank.
Title: Easton Area School District to resume uniform discussion this week

Authors: Tatu, Christina

The citation does not include a section, so I will leave the field blank.
Note: Be sure to use the pages of the source—not your printout pages!

The citation does not include pages, so I will leave the pages field blank.
Newspaper Container

Newspaper

Title: Easton Area School District to resume uniform discussion this week
Authors: Tatu, Christina
Document Type: Article
Accession Number: 2W63453904199
Database: Points of View Reference Center
Title: Easton Area School District to resume uniform discussion this week

Authors: Tatu, Christina

City of Publication

Publication city:
- Leave blank for a nationally published newspaper.
- For a local newspaper, provide the city if it is not already part of the name of the newspaper.

Explora Secondary Schools

Record: 1

Title: Easton Area School District to resume uniform discussion this week
Authors: Tatu, Christina
Source: Morning Call, The (Allentown, PA), 10/10/2015.
Document Type: Article
Accession Number: 2W63453904199
Database: Points of View Reference Center
Publication Date

- Name of newspaper: The Morning Call
- Publication city: Allentown
- Publication date: October 10, 2015

Record: 1
- Title: Easton Area School District to resume uniform discussion this week
- Authors: Tatu, Christina
- Source: Morning Call, The (Allentown, PA)
- Date: 10/10/2015
The citation does not include an edition, so I will leave the field blank.
Write a brief annotation evaluating the source and explaining its value to your research.

See Annotation Generator for help!
Click Submit
Here is the completed citation. You may always go back and edit.
MLA Parenthetical Reference

Example for your source
A parenthetical reference to this Newspaper might look like this:

...the end of your sentence (Tatu [Page #]).

Customize the example:
Page number(s)*: __________

* Note: If the database does not provide page numbers from the original print source, omit the page number(s) from your in-text reference.

Note: This is not the only way to write this parenthetical reference. For example, you might include the author or title of the work in your sentence already (see Rule 2). Please read the additional rules below to be sure you are writing your reference correctly.

What is a parenthetical reference?
A parenthetical reference is a reference within the body of your paper to one of the sources listed in your Works Cited list. It indicates to your reader exactly what you derived from the source, and specifically where it can be found. You need to write a parenthetical, or “in-text” reference, whether you quote the material directly from the source, paraphrase it in your own words, or refer to an idea derived from the material.

Under Options, Click In-text reference for help with Parenthetical Citations
Easton Area School District to resume uniform discussion this week

Christina Tatu

Oct. 10–Easton Area School District officials will resume discussions next week on whether to implement uniforms, a decision administrators and teachers say would cut down on distractions and put students on an "even scale" when it comes to their wardrobe choices.

The discussion figures to draw familiar refrains from students who say uniforms stifle individual style and hinder their ability to express themselves.

In fact, those refrains have begun. Sophomore Brianna Paul, 15, said her English class recently wrote letters to school board President Frank Pintabone weighing in on uniforms.

The class was pretty evenly divided said Paul, who was among those not in favor.

"I think it takes away everyone's diversity to be themselves. I don't really want to go to school and look like everyone else," she said.

Most students during a recent afternoon dismissal at Easton Area High School were wearing jeans and sweatshirts, some emblazoned with logos from popular brands such as Aeropostale and Abercrombie and Fitch.

Several teachers spoke in favor of uniforms, saying it's not unusual for students to sometimes wear sagging pants or low cut shirts, although the district's 2006 dress code bans such styles.

"Uniforms would put everyone on an even scale, although it takes away the freedom of how students want to dress," said Easton High School learning support teacher Sherly Bartolacci. "We are professionals as teachers, and I think they should be learning how to present themselves in a professional manner, too."

Easton administrators recently conducted an informal email poll of the district's teachers that showed about 89 percent are in favor of a uniform, Pintabone said, estimating about 650 of the district's 700 teachers responded.

The school board will discuss a uniform policy in a committee meeting at 6 p.m. Tuesday in the Education Center Board Room at 1801 Bushkill Drive, Pintabone said.

The last time the district considered uniforms was in 2009.

"The only reason it wasn't fully vetted a couple years ago was because the district was in such a distressed position financially that they said, "We don't want to look at anything right now. We need to focus on our finances,"" Pintabone said. "I'm leaning toward being in favor of it; however, I would like to see what everyone has to say."

http://web.a.ebscohost.com/locdelivery/sid=36a25547-ba80-48c7-90e6-e51e07fbee%40sessionmgr4007/sid=128id=1430488ReturnUrl=http%3a%2f%2fweather.com
If you are not sure about the source, perform an Advanced Search in Google searching for the periodical title as an exact phrase.
Analyze your results
The Morning Call is a newspaper.
Click the icon below to return to the NoodleTools Tutorial