When citing an online database newspaper article, look for citation information at the:

- Beginning of the article
- End of the article
+ Create New Citation
This citation has three containers:
1. Information about the Database
2. Information giving credit to the Article Entry
3. Information about the Newspaper
Select the database from the dropdown menu.
You should have written the permalink to the article on your printout. If you did not record the permalink, you will need to search the database again and copy/paste the permalink into NoodleTools.
The date you last viewed the article online.
If there is more than one author, click +Add Another Contributor to add another field.
Recycled water in demand, and not just for parks, golf courses
Source: Contra Costa Times (Walnut Creek, CA). 01/02/2016.
Source: Contra Costa Times (Walnut Creek, CA). 01/02/2016.
Leave this field blank if the newspaper is published nationally or if the city is already apart of the newspaper’s name.
Source: Contra Costa Times (Walnut Creek, CA). 01/02/2016.
If no edition is provided skip this field.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section:</th>
<th>Pages:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Newspaper

- Name of newspaper: Contra Costa Times
- Publication city: Walnut Creek
- Publication date: 01/02/2016

Source: Contra Costa Times (Walnut Creek, CA). 01/02/2016.
To edit a citation, click Options and then select Edit.