AP Images
Searching Tutorial

Current and historical photographs, maps, timelines, and graphs for every discipline. Updated daily.

If you are at home, you will need to access the POWER Library databases through Western Pocono Community Library using your 14-digit barcode number. You may also apply for a POWER Library e-Card from the POWER Library homepage if you do not have a public library card.
Type a keyword into the Basic Search field.
Click Search
Click on the blue link to view the photograph.
Read through the information to find a connection to your research before printing!
AP Images
Printing Tutorial
Eleanor Roosevelt

Description: In a new hairdo which exposes her ears, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt (center) takes part in the services of dedication at Arlington Farms, Va., an 18-building residence center for women government workers and WAVES on Oct. 16, 1943. Left to right: Lt. Tava Peterson Wiley, assistant director of WAVES; Mrs. Florence Kerr, assistant administrator, Federal Works Administration; Mrs. Roosevelt; Lt. Comdr. Mildred McAfee, head of the WAVES; and Mrs. James H. Doolittle, wife of Maj. Gen. Doolittle, commander of the Strategic Air Force in the Southern Europe war theatre. (AP Photo/OBF)

Use Information: This content is intended for editorial use only. For other uses, additional clearances may be required.

Image ID: 4310151160