MasterFILE Premier Searching Tutorial

Click here for directions on finding a primary source article.

At home you will need the EBSCOhost user name and password from the library’s Gold Sheet.
Use search terms from your Keyword Organizer

Search for One argument at a time
Limit your results to Full Text
Total search results are here.
You may Narrow Results by Source Type, Subject, or Publication
Examine the Subject Headings and read the Abstract for a summary of the article.
Park User Challenges Outdoor Public Smoking Ban

By C. Rothstein, Indiana. Park & Recreation, Fall 2013, Vol. 48 Issue 3, p21-25. 5p. Abstract: The article discusses the U.S. court case Gallagher v City of Clayton in which plaintiff Arthur Gallagher has appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit against City of Clayton, Missouri. It informs that Gallagher claims the city ordinance has prohibited outdoor smoking on some public property resulting in an unconstitutional deprivation of his civil rights. It mentions that the federal court dismisses Gallagher lawsuit considering the city’s health based justification. Reading Level (Lexile): 1510. (AN: 87279021)

Subjects: CLAYTON (Mo.), UNITED States, Court of Appeals (8th Circuit), ACTIONS & defenses (Law), GALLAGHER, Arthur, GOVERNMENT property, CIVIL rights, SMOKING

HTML Full Text
PDF Full Text (5.7MB)
Park User Challenges Outdoor Public Smoking Ban.

Authors: C. Kodowski, James

Document Type: Article

Subjects: UNITED States. Court of Appeals (8th Circuit) ACTIONS & defenses (Law) GALLAGHER, Arthur GOVERNMENT property CIVIL rights SMOKING

Geographic Terms: CLAYTON (Mo.)

Abstract: The article discusses the U.S. court case Gallagher v. City of Clayton in which plaintiff Arthur Gallagher has appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit against City of Clayton, Missouri. It informs that Gallagher claims the city ordinance has prohibited outdoor smoking on some public property resulting in an unconstitutional deprivation of his civil rights. It mentions that the federal court dismisses Gallagher lawsuit considering the city’s health based justification.

Lexile: 1910

Full Text Word Count: 2557

ISSN: 0031-2215

Accession Number: 87279521
Park User Challenges Outdoor Public Smoking Ban.

Authors: C. Kodowski, James

Document Type: Article

Subjects: UNITED States. Court of Appeals (8th Circuit) ACTIONS & defenses (Law) GALLAGHER, Arthur GOVERNMENT property CIVIL rights SMOKING

Geographic Terms: CLAYTON (Mo.)

Abstract: The article discusses the U.S. court case Gallagher v. City of Clayton in which plaintiff Arthur Gallagher has appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit against City of Clayton, Missouri. It informs that Gallagher claims the city ordinance has prohibited outdoor smoking on some public property resulting in an unconstitutional deprivation of his civil rights. It mentions that the federal court dismisses Gallagher lawsuit considering the city's health based justification.

Lexile: 1910

Full Text Word Count: 2557

ISSN: 0031-2215

Accession Number: 87279521
You may revise your search using additional keywords which will give you more refined results.
Now the search is narrowed down to more specific articles.
MasterFILE Premier
Primary Source Tutorial
Enter your topic
Select Publication Type: Primary Source Document
Or select Document Type: Interview
Examine the subject headings and read the Abstract for a summary of the article.
Be sure to consult the Printing Tutorial before printing your article!